Praise The Lord With Us!

- GREAT REPORT from Feb. 16 - March 3 Ghana, W. Africa evangelism project
 - * Gospel shared with 37,130 people, 147 venues
 - * 21,825 indicated professions of faith!
 - * Christian faith growing stronger in Ghana but...
(see right column)
 - * Team home safely after 24 hr. delay due to severe weather in NE US (see photos both pp.)
- Jeff A. voice growing stronger but not fully recovered (noticeable progress in Ghana; unable to speak in schools but shared with small groups during dental clinics and at police stations/checkpoints)
- Aug. 8-11 Honduras medical/construction/evangelism project - ALL 25 AVAILABLE TEAM SPACES FILLED
- Wonderful JAMin. team and friends who served in recent Jeff A. absence
- God's faithfulness to JAMin.

Pray for Us!

- Ministry to new converts in Ghana schools and villages as result of recent evangelism project
- Signs of growing political opposition to school ministry in Ghana (the same everywhere!)
- Ghana pastor & friend Simon Akpolu health issues
- Continued progress/healing of Jeff A. voice
- Planning/coordination of Aug. 4-11 Honduras medical/construction/evangelism project (orientation meetings, travel arrangements, over the counter medicines collections, etc.)
- Arlington Church Sr. Adult choir sings March 11 9:30 AM (Jeff A. leading)
- Jeff A. invited to serve on Grand Camp planning council (annual 2-day event for grandparents and grandchildren - Caraway Conference Center, Asheboro, NC; 1st meeting March 27 in Thomasville, NC (hope to influence evangelistic emphasis)
- God's continued provision for JAMin.

One night of familiar comforts in capital city of Accra (left), then a four-hour drive to the countryside and our project site.
