2020 Grand Camp June 28-30 (Fewer in Number But a "Grand" Success!)

About 70 grandparents and grandchildren gathered for the annual "blast" at Caraway Conference Center near Asheboro, NC. That was less than half of the 200+ in two 2019 camps (due to...what else? COVID!), but what a wonderful time we had! Crafts, recreation, the lake, pool, music & worship times, and a hilarious and amazing magician were enjoyed by all. Our theme was "Now You See It, Now You Don't," based on 1 John 3:2 (take a moment & read that verse). Jeff Andler was once again the music leader, for the fourth year. Take a look at our photos - and 2021, here we come!

1 Jn. 3:2

In late 2002, I made my second visit to Romania and spoke in the church of a young pastor, Ion Damien. Years later, we reconnected after he left the pastorate to engage in full time evangelism and outreach ministry. We have maintained a long distance friendship which has featured his monthly reports and pictures of his work, which are consistently impressive and inspirational. JAMin. supports Ion's work with our prayers and finances, as he has proven himself fully dedicated to seeing souls come to Christ and reaching out to the "least of these." As you might imagine, he currently serves amidst the COVID difficulties. Your prayers and gifts support him as well, and we are grateful that you trust us to responsibly share with others who are deserving. Thank you and God bless you! (see above photos)

Help Us Help Others

Many of our ministry partners in less fortunate areas are struggling financially for the obvious reasons. JAMin. would love to help them in every way possible. Your gifts will help. If you like, feel free to contact us for specific information. And thanks!

SPEAKING TO THE TIMES

In light of the societal tensions of our day, I have begun to intentionally engage people of color (different than mine!) in encouraging conversation. I assure them that they are not hated by me, and that we are all loved by God. I have spoken with dozens in many venues, who have responded in friendly agreement, and have engaged some with the Gospel. It can feel risky, and I know I will not change the world alone—but I will do what I can where I am!
