Lifelong Andler family friend Patty Brown reaches 50 years of service at Panama City FL Baptist Center - Jeff A. speaks at April 24 celebration!

Vada Andler, mother of Jeff, directed the Baptist Center ministry in the Bay Harbor area of Panama City from the early 60's until her death in 2009. In 1970 & '71, Patty came to the Center as a summer missionary, and in 1972, returned to stay as the full time associate. She was the perfect fit and was immediately accepted and loved by the people of Bay Harbor, as well as being named "sister" by the Andler kids and then "aunt Patty" by our children. She became director of the work following Mrs. Andler's passing, and is still going strong. While many of our readers may not know Patty, we want to share her news and express our love & pride in regard to her decades of faithful service. Pray for her and the work there. We love you Patty!

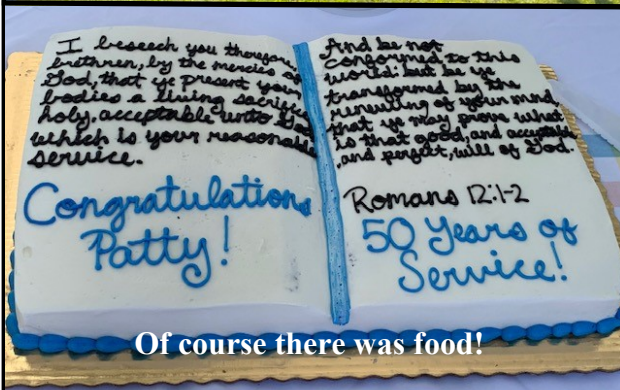

A beautiful Sunshine State day!
