“...your work is not in vain in the Lord”

(1 Cor. 15:58)

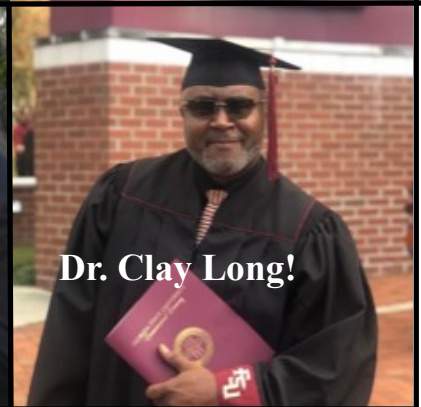

You recall our July 2023 newsletter reporting our farewell to family friend and co-worker Patty Brown, at the Bay Harbor Baptist Center in Panama City, FL. Moments before her memorial service began, I noticed a handsome, well-dressed man approach to pay his silent respects. I felt compelled to introduce myself, suspecting the possibility of a connection from decades ago. Upon hearing my name, he excitedly said, “Mister Jeff, I’m Clay Long! I came to your boys’ Bible class every Thursday afternoon way back in the early 70’s! I remember you picking us up in that big white station wagon, playing ball, singing with your guitar, and teaching Bible stories! You, Miss Patty and your mother Mrs. Andler had such an influence in my life. I became a pastor and still serve a church today.” Since July I have heard from Clay as he shared receiving his doctorate in ministry. That young boy from the projects of Bay Harbor is now Dr. Clay Long, pastor and scholar! I recall the 30-50 rowdy boys in those weekly classes could be a handful for this college student, and often wondered what good was being done. Almost 50 years later I have at least one answer, and am reminded that nothing we do for the Lord is wasted. Let us not grow weary! Rewards are waiting!

Since the early days of JAMin., we have made it a practice to regularly share of our resources with others who are faithfully serving the Lord & depend on the generosity of God’s people, as we do. Because of your support, we are now able to maintain this practice in even greater ways. In the next few months, we will introduce you to many of those we help. We are already glad to report greater numbers of people being reached & responding to the Gospel worldwide as a result of our partnerships. Meet Wesley Chripim da Silva in Brazil (left), with whom we served in 1999 & 2000!

We hope you enjoy our publications. Send an email or text with a comment or just hello!

Jan. 16 Union County Jail Lifeskills class (Led by Jeff Andler)

8 participants. All professed existing faith in Christ. A meaningful time together as the study, "Busting the Concrete" was again shared. We also enjoyed having Safer Communities Ministries' new Lifeskills chaplain with us, Cory. Jeff A. has been leading this class every 7 weeks since Oct., 2002.

Because of your support...

In Feb., 2023, JAMin. was able to help our partner of 21 years in Ghana, Simon Akpolu, purchase the "shell" of a house (walls & roof). Since that time, he has diligently worked & has the home ready for occupation. In Jan., we provided funds for finishing touches. He says "thank you!" (see below right)
