GHANA W. AFRICA EVANGELISM PROJECT REPORT

As of this printing, a few days remain in this current project that JAMin. supports in partnership with Roy Mason & Global Evangelism Ministries. We will give a final report in our April newsletter. Ministry partner Mark Chase joined the Ghana team during the 3rd week (1 week longer than usual). Your support enabled us to send our friends farther into their country, where they needed translators to interpret their language!

Our Feb. '24 publication told you we would be introducing you to partners in ministry that JAMin. supports - people we have known & are worthy of our encouragement as they faithfully serve. Meet Jeff and Margie Sikes of Lake Wales, FL, former longtime college baseball coach, now on a new journey with Fellowship of Christian Athletes. He will be reaching coaches for Christ, mentoring existing Christian coaches to reach their players, & more! Pray with us, for them!

For almost 22 years, help from people like you have made a difference worldwide!

So Long for Now

Dr. Guy S.
Sanders III

From 1982-89, I served the 1st Baptist Church of Lake Wales, FL, alongside pastor Guy S. Sanders. While most pastors claim a desire to see souls come to Christ, Guy was the most diligent, unwavering, and determined of any I shared ministry with - not only in his personal passion, but also in seeing everyone possible in his congregations learn to do the same. In my 7 years at Lake Wales, everything we did ultimately emphasized seeing people saved, which resulted in some "wild" & "crazy" (sometimes dangerous!) endeavors. They were exciting in our late 20's & early 30's, but today would be quite a daunting challenge! We saw great growth, built multiple buildings, and saw people grow in their faith as they led others to that faith. As I look back over 53 years of ministry, I still say, "Lake Wales had its challenges, but was where I had the most fun."

In recent years, Guy suffered with increasing dementia, and passed from death unto life in early February. On Feb. 17, I was privileged to stand with others as we led in his memorial service. What a meaningful weekend as we reunited with many who shared in those times decades ago. We say farewell for now to our friend & look forward to the reunion of us all. Please pray for his wife Phyllis, daughters Ashleigh and Andrea, and all his remaining family.
