What people are saying...

"God has used your ministry to help me persevere & not give up."
-Wesley

"Jeff's giftedness in music, speaking, and writing, along with his Biblical depth and practical insight, have so encouraged me in my calling."
-Doug

"You have ministered to me so greatly. I'm thankful to God for you my friend."
-Roger

Jeffery Paul Andler and wife, Lynne Harmon Andler, married in 1977, were raised in military families. After settling in Panama City, FL, he went on to graduate from the University of West Florida and New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary with a bachelor's and master's degree in music. From 1971 to 2002, he served churches in Florida, Louisiana and North Carolina. Since that time he has led Jeff Andler Ministries (JAMin.), a faith based organization that has seen remarkable ministry in the US and around the world.

He and Lynne live in Mint Hill, North Carolina (Charlotte) and have two children and three grandchildren.

“I encourage you join Jeff & his team in this transformative time for ministers who are tired, discouraged, or hurting.”
